

ABOUT THIS CAREER

Teamsters are involved in the transportation of materials in a variety of industries, including agricultural, forestry, health, manufacturing, mining, oil & gas, transportation and wholesale/retail industries. They are employed by organizations that produce, process and use products such as office supplies, tools and equipment, food goods, textile products, farm equipment or industrial supplies.

55,810 CONSTRUCTION
WORKERS NEEDED BY 2030*

BuildForce Canada*

Contact the local union for more information on hourly pay, benefits, pensions and more.

"I'm proud to work in an industry that helps run the economy. Without us, it would be difficult for people to get the products and goods they need."

You are a critical thinker.

You enjoy working independently.

You take a methodical approach to work.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Haul people & material
- Schedule deliveries & shipments
- Generate, pack and ship orders, and receive shipments
- Maintain inventory & process product returns
- Operate computer systems
- Operate powered & non-powered material handling equipment
- Work with storage systems and handle and store products
- Utility drivers must be highly skilled in operating all types of tractor trailer units

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

Entrance Requirements

XXX

Key Skills & Attributes

(technical training and on the job)

- Communication skills, reading & numeracy skills
- Problem-solving & critical thinking skills
- Physical strength, stamina & ability to lift 25 kg
- Manual dexterity
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to get along with customers & co-workers

DID YOU KNOW?

Businesses of all sizes depend on teamsters for the fast and safe delivery of products across the country.

atheroux@bta.ca |

780.421.9400 |

bta.ca