

HOTEL SECTOR WORKER

ABOUT THIS CAREER

Camp workers plan, prepare and serve meals and clean facilities in remote construction camps. These hospitality workers play a critical role on site! UNITE HERE Local 47 supplies workers through the hiring hall to work in remote camps in Northern Alberta. It takes dedication, responsibility and relevant experience to be a camp worker!

55,810 CONSTRUCTION
WORKERS NEEDED BY 2030*

**BuildForce Canada*

Contact the local union for more information on hourly pay, benefits, pensions and more.

"I help create the comforts of home for all on site. I like knowing my work is essential!"

You are organized.

You work well with & without supervision.

You enjoy working independently & in a team.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Safely operate kitchen equipment Prepare meals and cook using grills, ovens & fryers
- Ensure proper storage and rotation of foods per health/sanitation guidelines
- Follow production quotas and replenish stock
- Interior & exterior housekeeping of rooms and surfaces
- Serve customers and provide excellent customer service

WHAT YOU'LL NEED

Entrance Requirements

Key Skills & Attributes

(technical training and on the job)

- Good communication, reading & numeracy skills
- Problem-solving & planning skills
- Good mathematical, scientific, mechanic and logical abilities
- Ability to lift between 11 to 25 kilograms
- Ability to work pay careful attention to details
- Manual dexterity
- The ability to keep up to date with technological developments in this field

DID YOU KNOW?

Unite Here Local 47 has been representing camp workers for over 70 years – advocating for camp workers' safety, healthcare and respect.

atheroux@bta.ca |

780.421.9400 |

bta.ca